

Antitrust

Elected as the Antitrust Firm of the Year (Americas) by Global Competition Review (2015) and considered by Chambers & Partners Latin America as the “dominant practice group advising leading multinationals across a full range of competition matters” (2018).

Mattos Filho’s Antitrust practice has one of the largest specialized and fully dedicated antitrust teams in Brazil, consisting of over twenty professionals led by five partners.

Our services include:

- Representation of clients in merger review cases before the Administrative Council for Economic Defense (CADE) – Brazil’s antitrust authority;
- Assistance in structuring mergers, acquisitions, and other commercial transactions so as to mitigate potential antitrust risks;
- Representation of clients in antitrust investigations, leniency applications, and settlement negotiations with CADE;
- Representation of clients in antitrust-related litigation issues;
- Legal assistance for clients regarding antitrust audits and compliance programs;
- General antitrust-related counseling.
