Marcel Ribas

PARTNER

EXPERIENCE

Marcel represents and provides legal advice to corporations and individual clients in connection with governmental investigations and proceedings involving Brazilian law enforcement agencies. He focuses his practice on anti-corruption matters and on the investigation and resolution of sensitive business misconduct allegations such as internal fraud, regulatory and criminal violations. He has acted in several high-profile cases involving cooperation, negotiations and settlements with federal authorities, and has extensive experience in complex and cross-border internal investigations. Marcel also frequently provides corporate governance, risk management and compliance legal advice to corporations and investment funds in connection with M&A transactions, securities offerings and other strategic projects. His expertise includes a broad range of compliance subjects, including corporate integrity, anti-corruption, anti-money laundering, whistleblowing, international sanctions and the governance aspects of ESG.
