

RENATO TASTARDI PORTELLA

Partner

Renato has more than 20 years of practice and substantial experience in advising clients on anti-corruption investigations and government enforcement actions, including those initiated by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory enforcement agencies. He also counsels clients on general corporate governance matters and cross-border mergers and acquisitions transactions. He regularly advises multinational corporations on compliance with Brazilian anti-corruption laws, conducts internal investigations and due diligence, as well as develops compliance program evaluations and risk assessments. He is often invited as speaker on events discussing corporate governance matters and the Brazilian Anti-Corruption Statute.
